Location

Farmborough is a popular rural village which straddles the A39 and A368, surrounded by open countryside, farmland and a network of desirable villages. The village lies approximately 7 miles southwest of Bath and around 10 miles southeast of Bristol, offering strong commuter links to both cities as well as to Keynsham and the wider Chew Valley area.

The New Inn occupies a prominent roadside position fronting the A39 Bath Road on the northern edge of Farmborough. The immediate area enjoys attractive open countryside with rolling fields. The pub is well located to capture trade from the surrounding villages, wider area and passing trade travelling on the A39.

Property Description

The property comprises a two-storey detached public house of stone construction under a tiled roof, with a number of later single-storey extensions to the side and rear which are mainly under flat roofs.

Accommodation

As you enter the building from the main entrance, there is a bar with a central servery to the left-hand side which leads through to a dedicated games room at the rear, which includes a pool table and darts board. The main pub entrance leads directly into an open plan interlinking restaurant which can accommodate in the region of 160 covers. Part of the restaurant to the far right-hand side can be used as a dedicated function room.

Ancillary accommodation includes ladies, gents and accessible WC's, commercial catering kitchen, walk in chiller and freezer, ground floor beer store, basement office and various storage areas.

The private accommodation is situated on the first floor and comprises 3 bedrooms, lounge, storage areas, domestic kitchen and bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from extensive grounds including a surfaced car park for circa 54 vehicles, lawned gardens, children's play equipment, outdoor trading areas and a large field to the rear. There is a trade terrace to the front with 11 picnic tables on the terrace and part of the car park, as well as 24 picnic tables on the grass. Additionally, there is a bin store and a covered smoking solution.

The property's total GIA is c. 8,070 square feet and it sits on a plot size amounting to circa 3.129 acres.
