Location

Tipton is a historic industrial town in the Black Country which forms part of the metropolitan borough of Sandwell. It has a long-established canal network and is served by the A457, providing direct access to Birmingham and Wolverhampton, with further links to Dudley, West Bromwich and Coseley.

The Old Bush is located at the junction of Hurst Lane and Factory Road, around half a mile from Tipton train station. It has direct access to the adjacent canal via a National Cycle Route, and the beer garden is visible from the towpath.

Property Description

The property comprises a two-storey detached public house of brick construction under a pitched tiled roof, with various later single storey additions.

Accommodation

The accommodation is in need of full refurbishment, modernisation and renewal throughout. The floor plans included on pages 5 & 6 illustrate the size and layout of property. Parts of the property have been vandalised and there is fire damage in one of the bedrooms which is visible from the bar. The virtual tour illustrates the condition of the property.

The ground floor trading area comprises an interlinking bar and games room set around a central L-shaped servery.

Ancillary accommodation includes ladies and gents WC's, accessible WC, commercial catering kitchen, storage areas and a basement cellar.

The private accommodation is situated on the first floor and comprises 3 bedrooms, living room, bathroom and domestic kitchen. One of the bedrooms benefits from being en-suite.

Externally, the property benefits from a trade terrace and a grassed beer garden which has views of the canal. The beer garden can be accessed directed from the canal path. There is car parking for around 10 vehicles. Additionally, there is a private rear yard which is used for storage, including a redundant walk-in chiller.

The property's total GIA is circa 4,844 square feet and it sits on a plot size amounting to around 0.3 acres.
